

Looking for A first Home

128 Lake Entrance Road , Oak Flats

Situated in a handy position on a very desirable block on the high side of the street, this solidly constructed, three bedroom home (circa 1962) is filled with plenty of character. With a practical interior design this property has been lovingly looked after for many years by it's one owner. Featuring high ceilings, some polished floors under the carpet, fibro and tile roof construction with aluminium windows, it has loads of potential and is just waiting for you to add your own finishing touches. A large family room out the back, second shower and WC in the laundry, covered outdoor barbeque...
